

Recreational Vehicle Sales Career

Sales Consultant

TCRV, Northwest Michigan's largest RV dealership needs someone with a willingness to learn and have a great attitude. Enjoy a family owned, fun challenging environment. You'll primarily work with customers to help them with their purchase of travel trailers and 5th wheels. We offer a place where you WANT to work, and not a place you need to come to. This may be why many of teammates have enjoyed the benefits of working for TCRV for years and years.

If this is you, apply now!

What makes TCRV different?

- No prior sales experience required however experience with an RV, travel trailer, or boats may be helpful.
- Our customers really appreciate our simple no hassle pricing, and so will you!
- Our pricing is completely transparent and upfront.
- Unlike most Auto & RV dealers, we DO NOT have any extra fees that are added after the customers have agreed to purchase.
- Full-Time, seasonal work schedule, where you'll earn a full year's income working March until November. Then take the winter off to enjoy your family.
- Structured training program.

Essential Responsibilities

- Deliver the highest level of customer service in every interaction, whether in person, on the phone, or online.
- Work to create your own network of repeat and referral business through active prospecting and consistent customer follow up.
- Communicate with team members and team leaders.
- To sum it up: you need to sell yourself, Sell the benefits of buying local and from TCRV, Sell the features and benefits of owning a Jayco which is the best-selling trailer in the USA for the last 14 years. Finally, be helpful completely purchase documents.

Sales Department Support Assistant

Essential Responsibilities

- Act as an assistant to the sales staff in all aspects of the sales department
- Create a fun and friendly for both the staff and the customers.
- Assist customers in the "new owner" orientation of their newly purchased RV.
- May lead to future sales position.

To apply: Send your resume to jeff@tcrv.com you need not call the store or stop there as the building is closed until March. Hiring will occur before the building reopens.